To still further enliven the occasion the services of the band were brought into requisition, and under the direction of Mr. Berger, played selections which aided considerably to dispel the gloomy feelings omnipresent on the occasion of THE "STORM BIRD."-This vessel whose arrival has been expected for so long a time, and whose presence in the offing has been so often reported, and as often contradicted, finally arrived and anchored in the harbor on the morning of the 10th inst., too late for mention in our last week's issue. The Storm Bird left here on the 25th of last November for a cruise among the Micronesia Islands, and wish the ostensible purpose in view of obtaining another installment of people from that region who would be willing and capable of filling positions as laborers, servants, &c. No report of the cruise has been received as yet, but the Board of cruise has been received as yet, but the Board of Immigration, under whose auspices the mission was undertaken, seems to be satisfied with the result, and certainly the appearance and condition of the passengers speak well for a further continuance of the enterprise. During the trip she visited twelve of the islands and obtained a total of 93 persons, 71 adults and 22 children, all of which In this age of imitation, one can hardly believe were safely landed at this port. Two Serious Accidents .- An accident or rather a couple of accidents of a very serious nature, and which have resulted in fatal injury to one person, and probable maining and disfigurement for life to two others, occurred at the landing at Naalebu, Kau, Hawaii, on Saturday, the 10th inst. The particulars as far as learned are, that one of the boats belonging to the steamer Likelike, in charge of Mr Noble, was swamped while attempting to make a landing, and as the surf at the time was very heavy the occupants received some very severe bruises. Shortly after this had occurred, Mr. A. Hutchinson, vated, are requested to apply to H. Schussler, Haiku, a gentleman well-known here, secured the services of a boat from the Liholiho with the ostensible purpose of regaining two of his men who had stowed away on board the steamer. The trip to the steamer was made and the runaways captured. On his return, and in almost the same place as that in which the Likelike's boat was swamped, a huge breaker dashed his boat upon the rocks, capsizing it, and with such force as to seriously injure Mr. Hutchinson and two of the natives in the boat with him. Mr. Rycroft, Mr. Noble and others immediately went to their assistance, and brought them ashore, and Dr. Oliver, who had been sent for having arrived, examined Mr. Hutchinson and reported that besides the visible injuries, a very severe cut over the left eye and extending nearly to the ear on that side, the right arm was broken also and in two places. Another of the party a native had his collar bone broken. One of the runaways was reported missing, and as he was in the boat at the time of the socident, it is supposed that he was drowned. The accident was one of those kind that human fore-

The scene at the Park was by no means as lively or exciting as should have been, consider ing the large amount of "monish" staked, and the great expense and labor the parties had to get the proper articles necessary to ensure fast time. The betting mania seemed to be entirely absent from all but a few, and those few it was rumored would bet on a walking match between flies it nothing else turned up. The bets made were all even, until a short time before the appearance of horses upon the track, when through supposed, or straight, being given, the betting changed, the odds became five to three on Baby. Shortly after the advertised time, the horses made their appearance, and after a preliminary spin, the drivers were called to the judges' stand (Messrs Maillard, Lemon, and Pratt acting as judges), and receiving their instructions, were sent to their places, the mare having the pole. Before starting, a timekeeper was thought to be a necessary rea timekeeper was thought to be a necessary requisite, and a gentleman was induced to accept that position, but only for a moment as immediate objection was made by the owner of the Black Prince, on the grounds of the party being interested, and as the statement was found to be correct the position was vacated and the three judges assumed the responsibility. Everything being in order, the horses came down the stretch for the start, and as they passed under the wire, head and head, they received the word. The enunciation of the word "go," by Mr. Lemon seemed to cause doubt in the mind of Black Prince as to whether he was to go on, or stop; and several believed he was to go on, or stop; and several believed that the horse had misunderstood, and had confounded the words "whoa" and "go." At any rate ticulars of the occurrence, gleaned from the report of the captain, are substantially as follows. The Crosby left the port of Shanghae on the 15th of March, bound to Fanning's Island for a load of guano. About 4 o'clock on the morning of the 14th bidding farewell, if only for a brief season. As the steamer left the wharf the well-known air of 'Auld Lang Syne " greeted the ear, and the spirit of the strain struck a responsive chord within the breast of many there present, and hearts filled with fond recollections of friends fast fading from the view, and hopes were expressed that the absence would be but of short duration and that they soon -Among the names of the parsengers who sailed from here we notice the following: Hon. To avoid imposition, purchasers of Waltham Watches will observe that every genuine watch, whether gold or siver, bears our trade-mark on both case and movement. Gold cases are stamped "A. W. Co," and guarantee certificates accompany them. Silver cases are stamped "Am. Watch Co., Waltham, Mass., Sterling Silver," and accompanied by goarantee certificates accompanied by goarantee certificates. "Am. Watch Co., Waltham, Mass., Sterling Silver," and are accompanied by guarantee certificates, signed R. E. Robbins, Treasurer. The name "Waltham" is plainly engraved upon all movements, irrespective of either distinguishing marks.

This caution is rendered necessary by reason of the fact that our cases are frequantly separated from our movements and put upon worthless movements of other makers, and vice versa, thus affecting injuriously the performance of the watches and vitiating our guarantee, which is intended to cover only our complete watches wholly made by us. It is necessary, also, because it is so notorious as to be a public scandal, that there is great fraud in the metal quality of both gold and silver cases as now generally sold. We have demonstrated by frequent assays that many gold and silver cases offered in the market are debased from 10 to 20 per cent. from the quality they assume to be. This is a fraud upon the purchaser, and accounts for the low price at which such cased watches have been sold. thought can hardly prevent, and we are pained to learn of the injuries resulting, but hope the next news will be that the sufferers are doing well. BABY VS. BLACK PRINCE .- Off for Kapiolani cased watches have been sold.

We take this occasion to announce that we have recently entirely remodelled the very popular grades of full plate movements, known by the marks, "Wm. Ellery," "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," "Waitham Watch Co.," "P. S. Bartiett," and "Broadway," giving to them not only a highly improved appearance, but great additional value. We embody in them such of the best results of our experience and study for twenty years as can be useful in this popular form of watch. We give these new model watches special recommendation to all who look for good performance and solid excellence at moderate cost. The alterations have been made with the view of pleasing practical watch makers, as well as watch wearers. Practical watch makers, as well as watch wearers.

We avail ourselves, too, of this occasion to warn the public against chear watches. The superiority of Waltham goods, in all grades, is now so generally acknowledged that our competitors, Swiss and American, seem to have no resource but to present the attraction of low price. Their goods being inferior to ours, they have to sell them for what they can get. Times are hard, and recoils conterpilly not knowing a good watch from a had people generally not knowing a good watch from a bad one, very often allow a small price to decide them. William Morris, the eminent English Lecturer on Artand Labor Topics, in a recent lecture delivered before the "Trades Guild," says: Crades Guild," says:
'I know that the public in general are set upon having things cheap, being so ignorant that they do not know when they get them nasty, also so ignorant that they when they get them nasty, also so ignorant that they neither know nor care whether they give a man his due; I know that the manufacturers, 'so-called,' are so set on carrying out competition to its utmost, competition of cheapness, not of excellence, that they meet the bargain hunters half way, and cheerfully furnish them with nasty wares at the cheap rate they are asked for, by means of what can be called by no prettier name than fraud."

We are much mistaken if this is what the public wants or expects, of us, at least. Good watches cannot be made when neither workman nor employer has pride in his when neither workman nor employer has pride in his occupation; interest and pleasure in the work are both wanting, and both are essential to good watch-making.

Wanting, and both are essential to good watch-making.
Low price, especially in watches, MEANS LOW QUALITY,
WITH LOW PERFORMANCE AND HIGH REPAIRS.
Our mission was, and our business is, to make good watches, whatever the cost; holding firmly to this single purpose, we have seen improvement in quality and reduction in cost, by means of discoveries and improvements in machinery and by natural causes, go steadily on together, until we can truly say, Waltham Watches, in their respective grades, are the best watches made, and as to the lower grades, they are within reach of every-body who earns wages. Our prices are as low as they ought to be, and as low as they will be. Watches cannot be made for nothing, even by machinery. We say to the public, buy a good watch while you are about it, and pay a proper price for it. The more you pay an honest dealer the better satisfied you will be in the end; don't be dethe better satisfied you will be in the end; don't be decived by cheapness—quality descends faster than price.
